History of the Methodist Episcopal Church and Societies of Irvington, New Jersey

COPIES OF CORRESPONDENCE

"January 14, 1931.

"REV. ROLAND L. LUERICH,
64 Myrtle Avenue,
Irvington, N. J.

"DEAR MR. LUERICH:

"In preparing the records of the Methodist Episcopal Church, I was wondering if I may dedicate my work to the memory of my dear husband, William Porter Allen, in commemoration of the wonderful experience of the Divine presence which I had during your visits to Mr. Allen in his last sickness. I hold that bedroom as a Heavenly Shrine which was filled with the presence of our dear Saviour as you and Mr. Allen talked and smiled together. There was such a peace all around us telling us everything was just as God willed it, while my loved one, and all of us, were just waiting for the Hand of God to reach down and lift him to his Heavenly Home.

"I know Mr. Allen would be pleased that I am compiling the records of our Church.

"Sincerely,

"SARA WILSON ALLEN."
(Mrs. William Porter Allen)

"February 6, 1931.

"MRS. SARA W. ALLEN,
36 Orange Avenue,
Irvington, N. J.

"DEAR MRS. ALLEN:

"Your desire to write, print and present to the Church an historical account of Irvington Methodist as a memorial to the spiritual fellowship with your husband, Mr. William Porter Allen, was presented at the Official Board meeting February 3rd. I am pleased to inform you that the request is granted unanimously. Rest assured what transpired in the 'Upper Room' in those trying days will always be included in my spiritual treasury.

"Sincerely yours,

"ROLAND L. LUERICH."

"12 Momm Court, Irvington, N. J.

"March 4, 1931.

"MRS. SARA J. ALLEN,
36 Orange Avenue,
Irvington, N. J.

"DEAR MRS. ALLEN:

"At the meeting of the Official Board of the Church held on February 4th the Board was apprised of your desire to dedicate the history of the church, which you are compiling, as a memorial to your late husband. When this matter was presented the authorization of the publication received the unanimous consent of the Board.

"The Board fully appreciates your work in this instance and feels sure that it will be of great interest to the Church in general.

"Yours very truly,

"W. R. BIRD,

"Secretary of the Official Board of the Irvington (N. J.)

Methodist Episcopal Church."

The desire for religious freedom which led first to the founding of Newark, New Jersey, and possibly later led to the settlement of Camp-town (Irvington) is reflected in the number and variety of churches in the borough. From early days, unlike some sections where one church dominated, there have been differing denominations in Irvington, each with its individual beliefs and all associating amicably in a common purpose to better the life and aims of the community. About 1840, Rev. Edmund S. Janes (afterwards Bishop) came over from Orange, where he was then residing, and began to hold services according to the usages of the Methodist Episcopal Church in the Old Brick Academy on Clinton Avenue, in Irvington, N. J.

The Irvington Methodist Episcopal Church Society was established in 1845, as a branch of the Middleville (Hilton) Organization and the charge was known as "Irvington and Middleville" until 1867.

The edifice which was purchased in which to hold their services was originally erected by Episcopalians and sold at a sheriff's sale in the Spring of 1847. In the year 1847, an unfinished building, a mere shell, comparatively new, and unused, yet abandoned and neglected, its broken windows giving unmistakable signs of decay, was for sale. A few Methodists living in the village and vicinity conceived the noble project of purchasing the property and converting it into a Methodist Church.

At Bishop Janes' suggestion, Benjamin Meade became president of the first board of trustees of the Irvington M. E. Church.

John P. MacCormick was the Preacher in charge the year commencing May 1st, 1845, and the following years were:

The following belong with the reports of the S. S. Auxiliary to the S. S. Union of the M. E. Church belonging to Springfield charge:

School No. 1 consists of a Superintendent, Secretary and Librarian, eight teachers and forty-five scholars, who are regular attendants. We also have one hundred and twenty-four volumes in the Library and twenty-one copies of the S. S. Advocate, which are distributed among the scholars. The school is in a prosperous condition and trust will be enabled to continue it during the winter.

V. WILLIS, Secretary.

School No. 2: Held in red schoolhouse; consists of a Superintendent, a Secretary and Librarian; seven teachers, and thirty-three scholars, who are regular attendants. We also have fifty-seven volumes in Library. This school was organized last spring and is also in a prosperous condition.

Leaders: Alfred Brown, Elias Tooker, and John Napha

Appeals—none.

Sunday School reports from Springfield:

School No. 1 meets in the church in the afternoon during the winter. We have a Superintendent, a Secretary and a Librarian, four teachers and twenty-three scholars, who are with but two or three exceptions regular attendants. There appears to be some improvement in the behavior of the boys while at school. There is better attention and not so much noise and confusion as formerly. Some have learned to recite Scripture verses and upon examination have found that they nearly all are accustomed to pray. We have recently received a boy who is a German Catholic. The principal hindrance to a flourishing school here is the lack of a sufficient number of pious and persevering teachers.

School No. 2 meets at the red schoolhouse and continues in a very flourishing condition. Besides the usual officers and teachers, there are thirty-three regular attendant scholars, about half of which number have made considerable progress in learning our Wesleyan catechism. The patrons of the school have recently contributed a sufficiency to add to their library about sixty volumes, although there has been no conversions hitherto; yet according to present appearances, we have grounds to hope that some, perhaps before long, will become subjects of experimental religion. The interest is quite considerable.

Sunday School reports:

Report of the Sunday Schools, Springfield: To the members of the quarterly Conference for Springfield and Clinton Stations:

We have two schools, two Superintendents and about sixty scholars. One of our schools is in a prosperous condition; the other not so much so as we could desire. We hope, however, by persevering in our efforts to see an increase of interest and numbers and that God may be glorified by the instrumentality of the Sunday School in Springfield.

Submitted, C. TALLEY.

Third quarterly Sunday School report of Clinton and Middleville Station for the year 1848:

Our two schools are still in operation. The attendance of scholars is as good as can be expected at this season of the year. The teachers are generally faithful to their work.

Sunday School reports:

Report of the Sunday School, Springfield:

To the members of the Quarterly Conference for Springfield and Clinton charges:

Schools	2
Officers and Teachers.....	12
Scholars	61

One of our schools is in a flourishing condition; the other I perceive no special improvement nor do I hope for any until the church can be induced to take a greater interest in the matter.

Respectfully submitted,
 C. TALLEY.

Sunday School report for Clinton and Middleville, fourth quarter ending March 10, 1849.

The school at Camptown has been continued through the winter season; the attendance good, and no abatement of interest.

In consequence of painting the church at Middleville, the school has been temporarily closed, but we hope soon to resume our Sunday School work on this part of the charge.

GEO. HUGHES, Preacher.

Silas Ball being nominated by the Preacher in charge was elected Steward.

The following Sunday School report was read by the Preacher in charge and accepted.

Sunday School report for Clinton and Middleville Station for the quarter ending March 11, 1850:

The school at Clinton is in a very prosperous condition. The attendance during the winter has been quite remarkable. Ten dollars has been raised for the purpose of making additions to the Library and $25 as the proceeds of a Christmas celebration, which have been devoted to the liquidation of the Church debt.

The schools at Middleville and South Orange are temporarily closed.

The statistics are as follows: Schools, 3; Officers and Teachers, 28; Scholars, 175; Volumes in Library, 451.

Raised for benevolent purposes $57.63.

The following preamble and resolutions were offered by Preacher in charge and unanimously adopted.

Whereas the Sunday School Union of the M. E. Church is exerting a salutary and extensive influence in promoting the Sunday School cause, and

Whereas the managers thereof render prompt aid to Schools limited in their resources, therefore RESOLUTION 1. That in the judgment of this Quarterly Conference, it is the imperative duty of our people to sustain that institution by all possible means.

RES. 2. That it is our conviction that our Sunday School Libraries should be composed exclusively of our own publications.

Adjourned with prayer by G. Hughes.

H. DUNSTER, Secretary.

1850, Clinton—The next quarterly meeting for Clinton and Middleville charge held at the house of Joseph Kingsland, opened by singing and prayer by the Presiding Elder.

1850, Sept. 8—Second quarterly meeting held in the church in Clinton for Clinton and Middleville, opened by singing and prayer by Presiding Elder, the following members present:

Presiding Elder: Rev. T. Sovereign

Preacher: D. Graves

Local Preacher: H. Dunster

Stewards: D. W. Camp, H. Dunster

Leader: I. Kingsland

Questions: Are there any complaints, none; any appeals, none.
Third quarterly meeting Dec. 1.

H. DUNSTER, Recording Steward.

1851, June 23—The first Quarterly Conference for the Conference year 1851–1852, was held on Monday evening, June 23, 1851, in the Church immediately after Love Feast. Present:

Presiding Elder: T. Sovereign
James M. Freeman, P. C.
Local Preacher, Leader and Steward: Henry Dunster
Stewards: D. W. Camp and S. Ball
Leaders: I. Kingsland and M. Tallmadge

Henry Dunster was appointed Secretary. Geo. H. Whitney was duly nominated and elected a Steward. Bro. Whitney, being present, took his seat in the Conference. The Sunday School report was read as follows:

Sabbath School report of the Clinton and Middleville charge to the Quarterly Conference, for the first quarter of the Conference year 1851–1852:

There are three Sabbath Schools in this charge, one in Camptown, one in South Orange, and one in Middleville.

The Camptown School has 20 officers and teachers (10 male and 10 female), and 135—65 boys and 70 girls. The average attendance I have not been able to ascertain, as there has been no memoranda made in the minutes-book since some time in March last. It is supposed however to be about 90. There are 350 volumes in the library; 50 S. S. Advocates are taken. This School is in a flourishing condition.

The School at South Orange numbers 17 officers and teachers, 9 female and 8 male, and 40 scholars. This school has been held in a tent since Conference, which tent was erected for a place of worship. We have received from the Sunday School Union of the M. E. Church, a donation of $5.00 worth of books, etc., for the use of the school. This school is also doing well. The Middleville school which has been suspended during the winter was reorganized about three weeks since, but we regret to say that it is in a very sickly condition. There are only about 15 scholars and 3 or 4 teachers. It seems impossible to procure an adequate number of male teachers and there is very little encouragement for continuing the school.

The Quarterly sermon was preached to the children on Sunday, June 15.

Respectfully submitted,
JAMES M. FREEMAN, Pastor.

Camptown, 1851, June 23.

The Stewards brought in $76.59 (for items see treasurer's book) which was distributed as follows:

To the P. E. (T. Sovereign).....	$ 6.25
To the P. C. (Jas. M. Freeman).....	40.00
To Bro. Dunster for preacher's board.....	30.34

The next quarterly meeting will be held Sept. 21, 1851.

The Conference adjourned with prayer by the Presiding Elder.

H. DUNSTER, Secretary.

1851, Sept. 22—The second Quarterly Conference for 1851–2 was held on Monday evening, Sept. 22, 1851, in the Vestry room of the Church.

Present:

James M. Freeman, P. C.

Henry Dunster, David W. Camp, Silas Ball and Jas. W. Kingsland.

The Presiding Elder being absent, the Preacher in charge took the chair and opened the meeting with prayer. H. Dunster was appointed Secretary.

The Sunday School report was read as follows:

The statistics of the schools on this charge are about the same as last quarter, with a favorable increase of the school at South Orange. The Middleville School has died a natural death, or more properly speaking, it has died for want of good nursing, as a sufficient supply of teachers could not be found.

There has been no Sunday School sermon preached during the quarter, but in its place a meeting was held in a grove on the 27th of August, at which an address was delivered to the children by Bro. Hurd, and one to adults by Bro. Vansant. The exercises were very interesting, and the whole affair passed off well. In addition to this a systematic plan of instruction has been commenced by the pastor, which promises to be quite useful. The children are met once a month at the church, where they are addressed on some suitable topic and tracts are distributed. A list of their names and residences has also been prepared, and they are now visited at their houses.

JAMES M. FREEMAN, Pastor.

The Stewards brought in $67.63 (for items see Treasurer's book) which was disbursed as follows:

To Bro. Freeman$40.00

To Bro. Dunster for preacher's board..... 27.63

The meeting adjourned with prayer by Bro. Camp.

H. DUNSTER, Secretary.

1851, Dec. 22—The third Quarterly Conference for the Conference year 1851–2 was held on Monday evening, Dec. 22, 1851 in this vestry room, directly after the Love Feast. Present:

Presiding Elder: Thomas Sovereign

James M. Freeman, P. C.

Stewards: Bros. Whitney and Dunster

Geo. H. Whitney was appointed Secretary. Cornelius Driscoll was duly nominated and elected a Steward. Bro. Driscoll, being present, took his seat in the Conference. The following is the Sunday School report:

The statistics of the School are about the same as last Quarter.

A change has taken place in the superintendency. Bro. Bailey having removed to New York for the winter, Bro. Camp was elected to fill the vacancy. The Quarterly Sermon was preached December 7, from 1 Sam. 3:19. It was addressed to parents, teachers, and children.

The general prospect of the school is good.

JAMES M. FREEMAN, Pastor.

The Stewards brought in $55.72 which was distributed as follows:

To Bro. Sovereign	$10.00
To Bro. Freeman	35.45
To Bro. Dunster for board.....	20.27

The Presiding Elder announced the time for the next quarterly meeting to be March 7, 1852.

Adjourned with prayer by Bro. G. H. Whitney.

GEO. H. WHITNEY, Secretary.

1852, March 15—Fourth Quarterly Conference held in the Vestry room, March 15, 1852. Present:

Bro. Thomas Sovereign, P. E.; Jas. M. Freeman, P. C.; H. Dunster, L. C.; Geo. H. Whitney, Silas Ball, Cornelius Driscoll.

On motion Geo. H. Whitney was appointed Secretary. Nothing appearing against the character of Bro. Dunster by order of Conference his license as local Preacher was renewed. No charge brought forward against any of the Stewards.

Bro. Freeman presented the following report of the Sabbath School which was received:

Fourth Quarterly Report of Sunday School to the Quarterly Conference for the Conference year 1851-2.

The Camptown school at present consists of about 20 officers and teachers and 135 scholars. There are 350 volumes in the library. It is difficult to obtain correct statistical accounts of this school from the fact that there is no Secretary and neither register nor minute book is kept. The school is in as flourishing a condition as could be expected under the circumstances. We have suffered this winter from the want of teachers, especially in the male department. Bro. Bailey, the Superintendent last summer, has spent the winter in New York and Bro. Camp, his successor, has been confined to his house by sickness for about two months, so that the labor of the school necessarily devolves upon a few. The children, however, seem to keep up their interest in the school and we hope for better days. The quarterly sermon was preached Feb. 22.

The School in South Orange is still flourishing. Owing to delays in the erection of the contemplated Church, the School has been held in a private house during the winter, but as the Church is now ready for raising it is probable that the school will soon have better accommodations. There are here 9 officers and teachers, 46 scholars, and 175 volumes in library.

March 15, 1852.

JAMES M. FREEMAN, Pastor.

The President of Trustees of S. O. Church stated the church to be in a flourishing condition.

Geo. H. Whitney being duly recommended by the Conference as a candidate for license to preach, was, after examination by Presiding Elder, licensed.

On motion, Bro. H. Dunster was recommended to the Annual Conference, as a candidate for Deacon's orders.

The Stewards brought in $55.39, which was disbursed as follows:

To Bro. Sovereign (P. E.) in full.....	$ 8.75
To Bro. Freeman (P. C.)	25.55
To Bro. Dunster for board.....	21.09
	$55.39

Next Quarterly Conference to be held June 13.

On motion adjourned to next Monday night.

GEO. H. WHITNEY, Secretary.

1852, March 22, Monday night—Adjourned meeting of the Quarterly Conference held at the house of Bro. Dunster. Present:

Bros. Jas. M. Freeman (P. C.), H. Dunster, Geo. H. Whitney, Silas Ball, Cornelius Driscoll.

The sum of $10.25 was brought in and disbursed:

To Bro. Freeman	$6.83
To Bro. Dunster	3.42

By report, it appeared that Bro. Freeman has thus far received $142.83 and Bro. Dunster $102.89.

Resolved that effort shall be made on Sunday night next to make up the deficiency existing, about $25.

GEO. H. WHITNEY.

RECORD OF THE IRVINGTON METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH

NEWARK CONFERENCE
1866-1876

HISTORICAL RECORD

During the year ending March 26th, 1867, the ordinances of the Lord's Supper and Baptism have been duly administered by the Pastor of the Church four times in all. Three times on the Sabbath morning and once at the Watch-night service. The principal feature of the year has been the celebration of the Centenary of American Methodism which took place upon the 21st day of October, 1866, after which the following appeared in the Christian Advocate. It was determined by the Official members of the Church that the sum of Seven Hundred dollars of the Centenary collection should be appropriated for the payment of a mortgage upon the Church property and the remainder to the Conference Seminary unless otherwise directed by the giver. The result was that the Church debt of $700.00 was cancelled. Fifty ($50.00) dollars was given to the Wesleyan University and the entire remainder to the Conference Seminary.

Nothing particularly remarkable occurred during the year. There was no special religious interest manifest, and consequently no revival of religion. The Pastor's intercourse with the people has been of the most friendly and cordial kind, many little tokens of esteem given him marked the appreciation with which he was received.

The Sacraments were faithfully administered—the Lord's Supper four times in all in A.M. invariably—Baptism six times in all to adults and children by "sprinkling" only.

The above year ended March 18th, 1868. Conference of which was held at Plainfield, N. J.

I was reappointed March 24th, 1868. This year has been one of great satisfaction to both Pastor and people. The Congregation, Social meetings and services have been good, well attended and interesting. The year closed with a very sweet revival of religion securing to the membership, a deeper and more clearly defined religious experience and 18 precious souls the blessings of pardoning mercy, 12 of whom united on Probation; the others are to be received by the incoming Pastor.

The Sacraments have been faithfully administered. The Lord's Supper and Baptism; the latter both to adults and children.

There has been also considerable church improvement in the way of painting seats, building fence, lamps for pulpit—so that altogether to us the year has been very satisfactory.

The above year closed March 17th, 1869.

R. B. COLLINS.

(Clipping from a News-paper.)

Irvington, Newark Conference.—In this Church, Rev. H. M. Simpson, pastor, the Centenary meeting was held on Sabbath last. In the morning, after an able and most effective sermon by Rev. Dr. Porter, of the Book Room, a collection of about $1,000 was taken up. At the children's meeting in the afternoon, after stirring addresses by Dr. Porter, Rev. Brother Kingsbury, of Jersey City and Messrs. Campbell and Bolles, of Newark, the collection was increased to $1,140. The services were deeply interesting, and the results very gratifying.

I was appointed pastor of this charge on the 23rd of March. Being a married man, they had no provision for me, so wife and I boarded until a house could be procured. A house partially furnished was hired for the sum of $300.00 in which I have spent a very pleasant year. The most of those converted under the ministry of Bro. Collins have been received into full membership. Meetings of a special character were held during the winter and a few professed to be born again. The year closed on the 23rd of March, 1870.

I was appointed to this charge on the 28th of March, 1870. When I came here things were at a very low state. Prayer meetings poorly attended; scarcely ever more than a dozen present. Out of nearly one hundred members I suppose there was not one dozen regular attendants upon the class meeting—sad but nevertheless true. After much prayer and earnest personal effort, we soon were enabled by the blessing of God to secure an average attendance of forty upon the weekly prayer meeting. The Class meetings are now quite well attended. During the year we made an earnest, and indeed a desperate effort to secure a Parsonage.

The people though abundantly able were disinclined to take hold of the matter. By patience and perseverance, however, we succeeded in securing the sum of two thousand dollars on good and reliable subscription. Owing to their proverbial slowness, and chronic propensity for debating and discussing all matters looking toward improvements, the enterprise is for the present at a stand still. On the 8th of Jan., 1871, we commenced a series of meetings which continued with great power for eight weeks; resulting in the conversion of about fifty precious souls. I have made mistakes during the year, but they have been mistakes of the head and not of the heart.

The Sacraments have regularly been administered during the year. May the Great Head of the Church bless the Charge, and pour out His Spirit upon it more abundantly during the ensuing year.

The above year closed March 22nd, 1871.

HAMILTON C. MCBRIDE,
Pastor.

We have this year built an excellent parsonage, which is one of the best in the conference, worth at least six thousand dollars, on which we have had to raise a mortgage of twenty-five hundred dollars. The conference year closes pleasantly.

March 13, 1872.

MINUTES OF QUARTERLY CONFERENCE, IRVINGTON, N. J.,
1873 TO JULY, 1875

May 6th, 1873.

IRVINGTON M. E. CHURCH,

Rev. A. L. Brice, P. E.

Rev. W. S. Gill, pastor.

It having been requested by the Stewards, Trustees and Parsonage Building Committee that the Treasurer John Waterfield prepare a report of all moneys received and disbursed on account of the Parsonage Fund with a short history of the site and progress of the Parsonage itself in Irvington with a list of names, Contributions of $5.00 and upwards. Brethren the question as to the wants or need of a Parsonage in connection with the Irvington M. E. Church, had been discussed and deliberated upon for a period of time embracing at least seven or eight years and the question of a Parsonage ebbed and flowed as the zeal of the different Presiding Officers was warm or cool in the cause. It appears from what I can glean that a golden opportunity was missed a few years ago which at the present enhanced value of the same property would have been quite a pecuniary benefit to the church. But religious men have by a Great Authority been pronounced less wise in those matters than the men of the world (the investment was not made). The Parsonage question began to assume form and shape and give evidence of vitality during the pastorate of Rev. H. C. McBride—Committees were formed and various lots and sites were inspected, opinions were expressed and occasionally quite warm and lively discussions took place as to the eligibility of the different sites, which to say the least were refreshing. Towards the close of Mr. McBride's pastoral year, the spirit of bider had brooded over the chaos of conflicting views and sentiments and a plan was adhered into life in the shape of a Subscription Paper which was to be circulated through the church and indeed to all who favored the enterprise, now something tangible is formed, a nucleus around which the material aid is to gather and money was subscribed and paid in sufficient to purchase an eligible lot of W. H. Murphy on Myrtle Avenue at a cost of some $800—and in the early summer of 1871 in the Pastorate of the Rev. William J. Gill, ground was broken and the long contemplated Parsonage was seen to rise up in its goodly proportions, the Top Stone brought on, not with shouting, the plastic hand of the painter with his magic brush is applied and he pronounces the Parsonage completed, and the Goodly

Structure stands as an evidence of the zeal and liberality of the Church at Irvington, and with its open doors stands ready to welcome the faithful Minister of God to regale himself with its comforts and rest, and the prayer of the Church is that it may stand long after the heads of its Founders are laid low in the Valley, doing its mission of cheer and love.

Memoranda.—Pastor's Report: Our S. School is doing well and numbers 100 scholars. It would, however, be doing better if it were showing more of the spirit of prayer and of converting sanctifying power which is its only want—and this is the only want of the Church—we have beautified our House of Worship, but we have not greatly or in any noticeable degree beautified our hearts with the beauty of Holiness. We have expended about $640 and it is about all provided for but not in every case has the giver done his good deed with cheerfulness, though in justice I ought to say that perhaps I could not mention more than one to whom this remark applies and I mention it only because one sinner, even though he be a saint, destroyeth much good. I want union and heartiness, Christ wants it, our own souls need it, and to our happy and effective coöperation for the Salvation of souls it is absolutely imperative, there are no funds among us, but there is little ardour, a lack of a united fervour, of earnest spiritual purpose and effort. My heart is longing to see a change for the better.

PASTOR'S REPORT

DEAR BRETHREN:

I have very little that is new to communicate. Our S. School has undergone no change of any importance since my last report. Our Church Membership has changed but slightly. I have given certificates of this Mission to Mrs. Electra N. Brown and Mrs. Dutilla Miller and John Avery. I have received for Probation the name of Mrs. Sarah T. Jenkins, and I am indulging the hope of seeing many converted before I leave you. This is the last Report I shall be permitted to make to this body. Permit me to say, Brethren, that I look back upon my intercourse with you during the closing three years of our connection with a pleasure of no faint degree. I have never enjoyed myself better with any body of men. I have always been treated with due respect and consideration, a courtesy which I have endeavoured to reciprocate. The inevitable differences of judgment which at times have in some degree developed have never revealed any animosity or resulted in any illwill. Go where I may, I cannot hope to be connected with any official body more honorable and gentlemanly than you have been. You have thus far fulfilled your promises as I never doubted you would, or that you will continue so to do, and lest this last remark should be taken as an implication against others, I will add in justice to them, that I have thus far never been with any Church, which did not do better by me financially than it promised to do. There is a conscience in Churches and Church Officials.

I have only one wish unfulfilled, that of a large and powerful revival of religion in which we should work together in gathering in a glorious harvest. In taking leave of this Conference, I pray that it may never be less happy, but ever more prosperous, and that we shall all ever keep clearly before our minds the Eternal goal at the right hand of the Everlasting Father, where I trust after our Pilgrimage is over we shall all meet with a feeling of still purer and warmer Friendship.

Yours in Holy Bonds,

WM. J. GILL.

Irvington, May 27th, 1874.

Meeting of the Trustees and Stewards opened with prayer by Rev. J. Rogers, Bro. Murphy, Chairman; Bro. Waterfield, Sec. The object of the meeting was to ascertain the amount of subscription for the support of Minister and the Church among us. Brother Dickerson reports a little over $700 subscribed with some fifteen persons yet to be heard from. It was proposed that each Official Brother see any or all parties who have not yet given anything and solicit them to subscribe towards the deficit of $600 asked for at first. It was proposed also to make a specialty of Quarterly Meetings and for some $15 or $20 to make up the moneys required for Church matters. Brother Rogers made some remarks as to the propriety of holding monthly meetings to exchange views on the affairs of the Church and to inform him of any which it is desirable for him to visit. It was moved and carried that the Official Brethren meet once a month to consult on church matters and the first Thursday night of each month was the time appointed. Some remarks were made by several Brethren as to the monthly Observance of the Sacrament. It was moved and carried that this Sacrament be administered monthly—being no other business meeting adjourned.

Memoranda.—The Estimating Committee through Bro. Harrison reported for Preacher's salary this year $1,000 and Parsonage. Adopted. In reference to the S. School, some very happy remarks were made by several Brethren with reference to Bro. Dickerson's blackboard exercises in the School.

Pastor's Report:

We have one Sunday School, 6 officers, 14 teachers, 5 male and 9 female; average attendance 12; scholars, 50 male; 50 female; average attendance, 65; scholars over 15 years of age, 34; Infant Class numbers 24. Number of books in Library, 319. I think the School is in a good condition. The order is good and the School looks happy. I have preached once to the children. I believe they are not in the habit of being catechised by the Pastor. The children are not neglected so far as religious instruction is concerned. I have received none into full membership during this Quarter; excluded none; received none by letter. Dismissed by letter, Abbie M. Stockton, Moses B. Mase, Sister Almira Mase, and Leslie C. Marsh. Deceased, none; withdrawn, none. The following Pastoral labor has been bestowed: I have visited in what I call a Pastoral way 25 families, besides talking to some who have no family on the subject of religion. We took up a collection on Children's Day for the Conference Seminary. Our children are raising some money for the cause of Missions. I have not been informed of the amount raised this Quarter.

Respectfully submitted,

JAMES O. ROGERS, Pastor.

Memoranda.—Bro. Rogers made some remarks as to the collections of the Church, when was the most suitable time to take them up. On motion it was ordered that Bro. Rogers take up the collections when he thinks best. Bro. Rogers and Bro. Conkey made some remarks about the half past six o'clock prayer meeting, or young people's meeting.

Pastor's report:

Our school numbers 15 officers and teachers; 85 scholars of all ages; scholars of 15 years and over, 55; scholars under that age and not in the infant class, 10; Infant Class numbers 30; average attendance of teachers, 10; of scholars, 60. Our school is in a prosperous condition, united and growing. We have great reason to thank God and take courage. The Church, our congregation are good. The means of grace are better attended than some time past. Quite an increase in the Prayer Meetings. Classes not so well attended. Received into full membership: Walter B. Chandler, Phoebe Chandler, Sarah F. Jenkins, Maggie Wade. Received by letter, Caleb VanWort, Harriett VanWort, Reuben Seely and his wife, Jane, and Louisa Seely. Dismissed by letter, Mary A. Westervelt. Deceased, Milville Brown. Withdrawn, none. Excluded, none. I have visited as Pastor 15 families of our Church and some 30 individuals.

Memoranda.—Bro. Rogers reports something for the missionary cause, District Conference, to be held at St. Paul's Church, Newark, Feb. 25, 1875.

Pastor's report:

As to the Sunday School: It is now increasing in numbers and interest. There have been as we learn from the Annual Report of our Secretary, a number of names on the Record of children that were once with us, who have left the place or attend other

METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH OF IRVINGTON, NEW JERSEY,

Sunday Schools, these have been erased and notwithstanding, we have been receiving new scholars during this Conference year, we have less in number than what was reported the last Annual Conference. The Sunday School as well as the Church needs pruning, and we trust that both will be more healthy by cutting off the dead branches. On Christmas night our Sunday School was given a very handsome entertainment, and it was a most interesting occasion. I never enjoyed one more in any charge. I have preached to the children and catechised them by proxy and as to the Church, we have nothing special to report. Church prayer meetings, and class meetings, about us aforesaid. I have visited in a Pastoral way some 20 families during the Third Quarter. Received none into full membership this Quarter. Excluded none. Received by letter, 4 persons, William H. Sharp, Lizzie H. Sharp and Annie E. Mortland and Augusta Anderson. Dismissed by letter none; withdrawn, none; deceased, none during this Quarter.

RECORD OF THE IRVINGTON METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH

NEWARK CONFERENCE, 1876-1893

HISTORICAL RECORD

(A sketch by Rev. Joseph W. Dally of the Newark M. E. Conference)

About 1840 Rev. Edward S. James (afterwards Bishop) came over from Orange, where he was then residing and began to hold services according to the usages of the Methodist Episcopal Church, in the Old Brick Academy on Clinton Avenue, in Irvington.

The organization of the Church occurred in 1845; it was associated with the Church at Middleville (now Hilton, N. J.), and the charge was known as "Irvington and Middleville," until 1867, when Irvington was set off by itself. In the following year, however, the two Churches were again united, and this union continued until 1870, from which time the Irvington Methodists have not been connected with any other congregation. The date of the organization, as we have said, was 1845, when Rev. John P. McCormick was sent to the charge, assuming the pastorate May 1, of that year. In 1846, Rev. Robert Given was appointed to succeed Rev. Mr. McCormick; and the following year Rev. Martin Herr became the pastor. Writing to me concerning his year of labor, Mr. Herr says: "In the spring of 1847 I was sent to Middleville Charge.

"The Church in Irvington was originally built by the Episcopalians. In the spring of 1847 it was sold at sheriff's sale. Mr. Day, the holder of the mortgage, bought it; and, through the advice of Bishop Janes, I purchased the property of Mr. Day for $1,000. The building was repainted and somewhat remodeled. Subsequently, Bishop Janes rededicated it, preaching in the morning of that day; and the Rev. Charles Pitman, D.D., preached in the afternoon. It was a Sabbath day of precious memory!" Previous to this time the society held services in the Old Brick Academy, where a Sunday School, under the auspices of Mrs. J. W. Kingsland, Julia Wade and Priscilla Havens, was in successful operation.

Rev. George Hughes, now Editor of the New Jersey Methodist and associate editor of The Guide to Holiness, became pastor in 1848, and remained two years, being succeeded in 1850 by Rev. David Graves. The next year, Rev. James M. Freeman (now Dr. Freeman), the well-known editor and author, preached in Irvington. This place was then called Camptown. In allusion to this, he says, in a letter to me: "You will perhaps be surprised to learn that I never was a pastor in Irvington. My appointment in the 'Minutes' was Clinton—common people called it 'Camptown.' After I left, the name was changed to the more euphonious title, Irvington. I suppose the same march of improvement has long ere this changed the good old names of Sodom, Gomorrah, Skunk Harbor, Pork Hill, Vinegar Hollow (or was it Vinegar Hill?), and other delightful places in the neighborhood. Many pleasant recollections are associated in my mind with my year in Camptown."

In 1852, Rev. John Faull became the pastor; and in 1853 Rev. John White succeeded him. The following year, Rev. J. C. Blain preached here, and was succeeded in 1855 by Rev. John H. Vincent, who remained two years. This is the famous Dr. Vincent, the Chautauqua genius, author, editor, and other things too numerous to mention. Here is a letter which I recently received from him. "Extend my cordial greetings to the old friends of other years who may still remain in your church. Some of the happiest hours of my early ministry were spent in the little building on the corner. Its bell and organ still make sweet music in my memory. The infant class with its enterprising teacher, Miss Taylor; the sensible and humorous superintendent, Mr. Bailey; the dear old Bro. Brown, our conservative and saintly counsellor and friend—all these and many more come into mind. But the duties of to-day stop the dreams of yesterday. May we all meet in some glad 'to-morrow' in our Father's house above! My love to all who love the Church."

Rev. Matthias F. Swain, succeeded Dr. Vincent in 1857, and the next year Rev. John F. Hurst became minister in charge; he that is now one of the Bishops of our church; historian, linguist and theologian. In a letter dated Dec. 6, 1880, he thus speaks of his early parish:

"Irvington was the beginning of my ministry. I shall never forget the kind friends who aided me so much by their tender sympathy and love. The magnolia that grew beneath my window, in Mr. Rathbone's house, and sent up its spring fragrance, was but a type of the kindness of all the good people. I have always remembered the dear church and the community with pleasure and I expect to keep on doing it."

A Bishop from Irvington—and why not? He who pens these lines, the author of this brochure, meditates with awe upon his possible future, when he remembers that he is following such notable men in the pastorate. Who knows but what—? Ah, well! Let us rein up our wild ambition! Let the Muse of History lull our feverish pulse! When Dr. Hurst (not then a doctor) left the classic highlands of Irvington in 1859, the Rev. Henry A. Buttz, became his successor. This is the distinguished President of the Drew Theological Seminary, preceded in that position by such men as Dr. McClintock, Bishop Foster and Bishop Hurst. He has become eminent in Greek; but his friends love him most, not for what he knows, but for what he is. The following is an extract from a private letter from Dr. Buttz: "The M. E. Church of Irvington is bound to me by many precious recollections. I shall never forget the cordial welcome they gave me when I came, and their generous support during my entire stay among them. It was a season of great suffering for me during part of the year, and I was out of my pulpit on account of it for several months. They bore my absence patiently, and their generous sympathy was unbounded. I always remember your dear congregation with pleasure, and now say most prayerfully, God bless them!"

When Dr. Buttz's pastorate of a year expired in the spring of 1860, Rev. Edwin Day occupied the pulpit in his stead. In 1861 came Rev. William M. Lippincott, who remained two years, and was followed by Rev. Charles R. Snyder in 1863. The next year Rev. John Scarlett preached on this charge, and continued to do so until the spring of 1866, when Rev. Henry M. Simpson was appointed pastor. In 1867 Rev. Robert B. Collins became the Irvington preacher, and he thus graphically describes his advent:

"My first evening in Irvington was spent at the residence of Mr. Charles W. Harrison. I was cordially received and hospitably entertained, but the night was one of great anxiety to me, as is probably the case with all Methodist preachers the night before their first appearance in the presence of their new congregations. It was to me particularly so, because I had been told, before my arrival, that Irvington, though a small village, was one that contained many contrary beliefs—that the people were critical and independent, and if they didn't like you they wouldn't hesitate to let you know it—that in one of the neighboring churches there was a champion preacher, etc. I was brave until I got on the ground, but then I fairly trembled. The issue proved, however, that my fears were groundless. A more generous, loving, and faithful people I never served. This was true of the inhabitants as well; and to this day their kindness to me are remembered with the greatest pleasure."

Bro. Collins ministered two years in this Church and was succeeded in 1869 by Rev. Jesse S. Gilbert, A.M., author of several works of value. At my request, Bro. Gilbert sent a poem to the Church which will be found on the last page. Rev. Hamilton C. McBride came in 1870, and it was during his pastorate that the pleasant parsonage was projected, in which these lines are being written.

Rev. William I. Gill, the author of two philosophical works, came in 1871 and preached for three years to the Irvington congregation. During his stay, the parsonage was completed. Rev. James O. Rogers was appointed as Bro. Gill's successor in 1874; and Bro. Rogers was followed by Rev. William R. Keifer in 1877. The present pastor (Joseph W. Dally), was put in charge in 1879. In its palmy days the Irvington congregation was a strong Church. October 21, 1866, when the Centenary of American Methodism was celebrated here by a special meeting, the contribution taken in honor of the occasion amounted to $1,140. Of this amount, $700 were appropriated to cancel a mortgage on the Church itself; $50 were given to Wesleyan University, and the remainder was donated to the Conference Seminary.

The Church, notwithstanding its losses by death and removal, is really in excellent condition. We shall not cease to mourn for those who are gone and labored so lovingly with us in the Gospel; but we rejoice in the work they have done, and gladly take it up where they have laid it down, if by any means we may enter into their labors, and finally, by the grace of God, into their rest.

Among those who have recently left us for the "better land" is Godfrey Schutt, for many years a Class-leader in our Church, besides holding an Exhorter's license and the office of steward. He was born in Wolgast, Prussia, August 23, 1797, and died in Irvington, N. J., October 2, 1879. In 1826 he arrived in America, and subsequently resided at Rhinebeck, N. Y. In 1831 he was converted and became a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church. It was during this year that he married, and his wife remains with us to this day. Removing from Rhinebeck to New York City, he became interested in the German Mission work, of which he was one of the chief promoters. May his godly life inspire those who tarry a little longer.

Charles W. Conkey was born in September, 1819, in Greenwich, Mass., and died in Irvington, N. J., January 8th, 1880. He came to this place in 1852 and became a member of our Church, worthily filling the office of Treasurer of the Board of Trustees for many years. In 1842 he was converted. The following year he married Eunice Chapman, of Tolland, Conn., who is with us to-day. Bro. Conkey was "one of the excellent of the earth."

Emily S. Hageman, wife of John V. Hageman, was born November 25, 1835, in New York City, and died in Irvington, N. J., October 10, 1880. Her maiden name was Emily Rathone, and her father's house in this village, was for many years the hospitable home of the Methodist ministers. From childhood she was the loving disciple of the loving Lord, and to find Him she never had far to go. John Waterfield, a native of England, class-leader, trustee, and steward in the Church, died in Irvington, N. J., Dec. 31, 1880, aged 62. Nearly forty years ago he was converted in Leicestershire, England, under the ministry of the late Rev. Thomas Staten. In 1847 he came to America; soon after he was joined by his friend, Mr. Charles Walker, and together they went to Nashville, Tenn., and for many years successfully followed mercantile pursuits. Fifteen years ago Bro. Waterfield came to Irvington, and immediately allied himself with the Church. A man of commanding presence and great natural ability, he soon made his influence felt—in such an unobtrusive way, however, as to win the affection of all. Especially distinguished among us as a Bible student, his instruction and counsel in class and in Quarterly Conference were invaluable. From conversion until death, he was remarkable for regular attendance upon worship. His genuine wit was so pleasant, that no wound accompanied the shaft. The town moved with sorrow when he passed away, and although many affecting testimonies were uttered by him before he died, none were so effective as his grand experience of saving faith for nearly two score years. Very fitting are the words of a former pastor who sends his greeting to our Church in poetic guise:

A SONG IN THE NIGHT

BY THE REV. JESSE S. GILBERT, A. M.

Life's fitful dream will soon be o'er,
The flood of years bears all away;
The brave and fair, the high and low,
Alike must sleep on beds of clay.

The eyes must close in dreamless sleep,
The "active limbs" lie cold and still:
And beauty's form and manhood's pride,
Repose beneath the white-stoned hill.

Yet still our hearts beat high with hope,
For far beyond "death's iron gate,"
The souls of those who lived for Christ,
Our pilgrim feet rejoicing wait.

And o'er the Christian's silent dust,
The angels tread their rounds of air:
And till the eternal morning dawns,
Will pitch their tents of glory there.

When o'er these weary hills of earth,
The morning breaks that ne'er shall close,
The saints of God, upraised from dust,
Shall shine and bloom like Sharon's rose.

Then let these hopes our fears disarm,
And flood our souls with heavenly joy,
We're on our journey to the skies,
Where pain and death shall ne'er annoy.

A DEDICATION ANNIVERSARY

MEMBERS OF THE IRVINGTON METHODIST CHURCH OBSERVE IT WITH SPECIAL SERVICES

Sermon by Rev. Dr. Hoagland

The fifty-eighth anniversary of the Society of the Irvington Methodist Church, and the second anniversary of the dedication of the new building, were celebrated yesterday with special services, which were attended by large congregations. The interior of the church was elaborately decorated with potted plants and cut flowers. The Junior League met in the morning, at 9:45 o'clock, and at 10:30 the Lord's Supper was celebrated, with Rev. George Hughes, of South Orange, officiating, assisted by the pastor, Rev. J. William Ryder. Dr. Hughes was pastor of the church in 1848 and is the oldest surviving former preacher. He is eighty-one years of age and shows remarkable strength and activity. He made a few remarks preceding the administration of the sacrament, speaking of Irvington, Hilton and South Orange as preaching points in his circuit, long years ago. He also made mention of the great elm trees that were planted about the church property during his pastorate, and of their stately beauty at the present time. The preacher referred to Mrs. Phoebe Chandler, who was present at yesterday's services. She was received into the church when Dr. Hughes was pastor. Mrs. Chandler is still a regular attendant of the church.

The preacher also spoke of Rev. George Whitney, for many years president emeritus of Hackettstown Seminary, who was made a class leader in Irvington Church in 1848. Dr. Hughes spoke with a feeling of pride of the aid he had given Dr. Whitney.

Previous to the holy communion, the pastor baptized five candidates and received three on probation and four in full membership.

Dr. Hoagland's Sermon

In the evening Rev. Dr. Warren L. Hoagland, presiding elder of the Newark district, preached the anniversary sermon. He spoke of the fine work done by the congregation of the Irvington Church in the way of raising the fund for the new edifice, which has reached a total of $10,519.63. Dr. Hoagland chose for his text I Corinthians iii, 9: "For we are laborers together with God." He said, in part:

"God is very closely related to His world. He has never withdrawn Himself from it, and He is the greatest worker in the world, as all His works declare. He is much interested in man. As Paul says, 'In Him we live and move and have our being.' How long God worked without man we do not know, but that He did thus work there is abundant evidence. But now God and man are the closest partners. The latter sows the seed and God gives the increase. The sailor sails the seas and God gives the favoring breezes.

"Many things God does without man, yet He permits him to put the finishing touches upon many of His works. Way back in the glacial period the ice sheets ploughed great furrows across the northern part of our State, and man has cultivated those valley and transformed them into habitations of rare beauty.

"Sometimes it happens that we do not know how to appreciate the work that we do in this life, but the finished product will reveal many glad surprises. Out of the jumble of colors will come the beautiful picture and out of the tangle of threads will come the tapestry. Suffice it to know that we are all co-laborers together with God, and if we are faithful in doing our simple duty, whatever that may be, He will make the product thereof a part of His decorations in the spacious temple of the eternal world." A programme of music was rendered by the choir, assisted by the Church orchestra.

BISHOP VINCENT IN OLD CHARGE

BEFORE IRVINGTON CONGREGATION HE DECLARES RELIGIOUS TEACHING
IS DETERIORATING

Fears for Safety of Young

The reception to Bishop John H. Vincent Saturday night in Irvington and his appearance yesterday morning in the pulpit of the Church of which he was pastor half a century ago will be historical events in the history of the Methodist Church of that place. The bishop had the Irvington charge in 1855-56 and several residents of the town who were members of the congregation at that time participated in the welcome to their former preacher. A number of clergymen were also present, including Rev. W. R. Keefer, of Midland Park; Rev. Uriah McClinchie, of the Irvington Reformed Church; Rev. Dr. Palmer of De Groot Memorial Church, this city; Rev. D. W. Ryder of Stony Point, N. Y.; Rev. Thomas Gordon, of Denville; Dr. W. H. Whitney, of Plainfield; Rev. Dr.

John A. Gutteridge, statistical secretary of the Newark conference; Rev. S. K. Doolittle, of Dunellen; Rev. E. S. Jamison, of Basking Ridge; Rev. Elbert Clement, of Nutley, and Rev. J. W. Dally of Englewood. The last named four are former pastors of the Irvington Church. Others present included several members of the Palestine class, which was formed by Bishop Vincent during his pastorate of the Irvington Church, and which had a membership of sixty. This class, as has been told in the News, evolved itself into the Chautauqua movement.

Bishop Vincent was welcomed on behalf of the congregation by Jos. W. Walker, president of the board of trustees. An interesting feature of the reception was the presentation of a large bouquet of calla lilies from a Mrs. Rogers, of Bloomfield, a former member of the Church, who was too ill to attend. An impromptu program of organ music was rendered by Miss Lucy V. Stephans, the church organist, which included the selection, "Home Again from a Foreign Shore."

This was recognized by the bishop, who alluded to it in his remarks. A luncheon was served and the affair was brought to a close by the congregation singing "The Tie That Binds."

Bishop's Sermon

Bishop Vincent was assisted at the morning service yesterday by Dr. Whitney, Dr. Gutteridge, Rev. D. W. Ryder and Pastor J. William Ryder. His text was "Jesus Christ, the same yesterday, to-day and forever." He referred to the time that he was pastor of the church, and said that it was a pleasure to be back among the scenes of his labors of fifty years ago and once again meet the old friends that he had made in Irvington. He admonished his hearers to give a care to the religious training of the younger generation, and expressed a fear that at the end of the next quarter of a century the young folks would scarcely be familiar with the Ten Commandments, owing to a neglect of early religious teaching. He laid particular stress upon moral deterioration and declared that what the young men of twenty-five years ago would not think of doing was done with impunity to-day.

In speaking of conduct and character he ventured the belief that all that was needed to acquire those essential attributes was to properly give one's self to Christ. He advised every one to make their religion at home a reality. The bishop was entertained at dinner Saturday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Wardell, in Union, and was the guest of Rev. J. William Ryder over night.

Yesterday afternoon he went to Nutley to visit a sick friend, and last night he took a midnight train for Boston, from whence he will proceed to Bangor, Me. He will preside at a conference at Rumford Falls, Me., on Wednesday, and at Pittsfield, Me., April 6. He will then return to New York, after which he will go to California, where he will attend the general Methodist conference in May. Bishop Vincent has just returned from Europe, where he was assigned four years ago to look after the interests of the Church. His episcopal residence was in Zurich, Switzerland, and he presided over nine conferences, which embraced, among other countries, Norway, Sweden, Denmark, Germany, Italy and Bulgaria.

IRVINGTON CHURCH DEDICATED

Ceremony Concluded a Week of Services Held by the Methodist Congregation

The new Irvington Methodist Church was dedicated yesterday morning. The services began with an organ prelude by Miss Lucy J. Stephans. The processional, "Holy! Holy! Holy!" was sung by the junior and senior choirs, and Rev. J. William Ryder, pastor of the church, read from the Scriptures. Wagner's "Parsifal" was rendered as an offertory selection, after which the choir sang Gounod's "Send Out Thy Light."

Bishop E. G. Andrews preached the dedicatory sermon and took for his theme "God Is a Spirit," from St. John iv. 24. After the sermon the Trustees of the Church, headed by President Walker, came forward and stood before the altar. Mr. Walker presented the building to the bishop for dedication for the service and worship of God. The congregation then arose and Bishop Andrews proceeded with ritualistic service of dedication. A bass solo by Morgan Prentice followed.

In the afternoon the Sunday School held a rally, to which the schools of the Reformed and Christian Church had been invited. Dr. R. R. Doherty, a Sunday-school worker of national reputation, addressed the meeting, taking for his subject, "Faith, Hope and Charity." Rev. Morris T. Gibbs, a former pastor of the church, also spoke.

The feast of dedication was observed at the evening services. Rev. Morris T. Gibbs and Rev. R. B. Collins, former pastors of the Church, made addresses. During the day $1,065 was raised in subscriptions, leaving a debt of $1,400 on the church. One of the features of the week's services was the presentation of a Bible to the First Reformed Church in Irvington on Friday night. The Methodist congregation worshipped in the former edifice during the nine months that the new building was being erected and it was in appreciation of this courtesy that the gift was made. Year 1900.

CHURCH TO MARK 70th BIRTHDAY

METHODISTS WILL HOLD ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATION THROUGHOUT
COMING WEEK IN HONOR ESTABLISHMENT IN 1847

Will Pay Off Debt

The seventieth anniversary of the organization here of the Methodist Episcopal Church will be celebrated next week beginning with special services Sunday.

The Church property was purchased in 1847 from the late Stephen Day. The old Church edifice had previously been used by the Episcopalians. The late Bishop E. S. Jones, of Orange, is credited with starting the church which, for some years, was conducted on a circuit which included Middleville, now Hilton. The oldest living former pastor is Rev. Dr. Henry A. Buttz, who is on the faculty of Drew Seminary. Dr. Buttz was here as pastor in 1859.

In 1901 the old Church was taken over by the Sunday School and a new Church auditorium was erected on Union avenue. By the end of the present year it is expected that final payment of the church indebtedness of $1,500 will be paid. One-half is already pledged. The history of the church from 1847 to 1888 was written by a former pastor, Rev. Joseph W. Dally. Joseph Walker has brought the history up to date and its presentation will be one of the features of the coming celebration.

Rev. Karl K. Quimby, who has made many friends throughout the town since assuming the pastorate not long ago, has perfected arrangements for next week's celebration. At the evening service Sunday, Rev. Dr. J. William Ryder, a former pastor, will speak. "Our Church Night," will be celebrated Tuesday; speaker, Rev. Dr. Millard L. Robinson. Wednesday night will be for former pastors with an address by Dr. Buttz. "Home Night" will be observed Thursday evening, speaker, Rev. Dr. Dorr F. Diefendorf. Friday night will be for "young people," with an address by Rev. Frank W. Smith. The following Sunday, Bishop Luther D. Wilson and Rev. Dr. George G. Vogel will preach.

Following each of the week night meetings, there will be a social hour with refreshments. The choir under the direction of Edward C. Murphy will provide the musical programs. Mr. Quimby says none of the congregation need fear that attendance at the festivities will lighten the pocketbook. There will be no admission fee, no collection, not even an offering will be taken up.

IRVINGTON METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH WILL OPEN SEVENTIETH
ANNIVERSARY WEEK TOMORROW

Dedicated to the service of God by the late Bishop Edmund S. Janes, a circuit rider in the early days of Methodism, through whose instrumentality it came into existence, Irvington Methodist Episcopal Church will enter upon a week's celebration tomorrow in observance of the seventieth anniversary of its founding. A special program has been arranged beginning with the celebration of holy communion tomorrow morning by the pastor, Rev. Karl K. Quimby, and concluding the following Sunday when Bishop Luther B. Wilson of New York will preach in the morning and Rev. Dr. George G. Vogel, superintendent of the Newark District, in the evening.

A special program for the week has been prepared by the anniversary committee composed of the pastor, Joseph R. Allwood, Joseph Walker and Miss Burnettie P. Coit, members of the official board of the church. Services will be held every evening except Monday and Saturday with special music each night by the choir under the direction of Chorister Edward C. Murphy. Refreshments also will be served and a general invitation is extended the town's people to participate in the celebration.

The sermon at 7:30 o'clock tomorrow night will be delivered by Rev. Dr. J. William Ryder of First Church, Rahway, who was pastor of the Irvington Church from 1900 to 1904. During his pastorate the present edifice was erected. It is a composite building formed by remodeling the old original structure, now the Sunday School room, and the construction of a large addition with a spacious auditorium.

Several Former Pastors to Speak

"Our Church Night" will be observed Tuesday evening with Rev. Dr. Millard L. Robinson, Secretary of the Methodist Missionary Society of New York, as the preacher. Wednesday evening will be "Former Pastors' Night" and it is expected that a majority of the surviving clergymen who at one time filled the pastorate will be present. Rev. Dr. Henry A. Buttz, president emeritus of Drew Seminary at Madison, who was pastor of the Church in 1859 will preach at 8 o'clock. An informal social hour will follow when opportunity will be given to meet the old pastors.

"Home Night." Thursday will include a sermon by Rev. Dorr Frank Diefendorf of Roseville Church, and a fellowship and reunion hour. Friday evening has been designated as "Young People's Night," when Rev. Dr. Frank W. Smith of New York, a member of the Sunday School Board of the Methodist Church, will preach. A social hour will follow, entertainment being provided by the Sabbath School.

The present congregation is the outgrowth of a movement started seventy years ago by a handful of Methodists then worshiping in the Camptown Academy, an old brick structure in Clinton avenue on the site now occupied by Masonic Hall. Bishop Janes, who was residing in Orange at the time, became interested in the efforts of the group who were anxious to obtain a permanent edifice of their own. The old church, which was then owned by the Protestant Episcopal Church of Camptown, as Irvington was then called, passed into the hands of the late Stephen Day, a resident of the community in 1847, one of the original members of the Church, who sold it to the Methodist Conference, Bishop Janes fathering the project.

Mr. Quimby Is Thirty-eighth Pastor

Seventy years ago Camptown, or Irvington, as it was latterly named, formed part of a circuit including Middleville, now known as Hilton, the two communities being supplied by a circuit rider who drove from one place to the other on the Sabbath to conduct services. The first regularly assigned pastor after the Irvington Church came into existence was the late Rev. John P. McCormick, who served one year.

Thirty-seven pastors filled the pastorate during the intervening years, of whom sixteen are now living. The last to succumb was Rev. Samuel K. Doolittle, who died Oct. 17, after serving nearly fifty years in the ministry. He was pastor from 1888 to 1892. Since the church was established two of the clerics who occupied the pulpit in the early days were elevated to the episcopacy, namely, Bishop John H. Vincent, who was pastor in 1855 and 1856, and who originated the Chautauqua movement while in the Irvington charge, and the late Bishop John F. Hurst, in 1857.

Surviving occupants of the pastorate, besides Dr. Ryder, who are expected to attend the anniversary celebration, include Rev. Dr. John H. Egbert of Chatham, Rev. Joseph W. Dally of Ridgewood, Rev. Robert B. Collins of Madison, Rev. Joseph F. Andrews of Paterson, Rev. Morris T. Gibbs of Hackettstown, now retired; Rev. George W. Gardner of First Church, Orange; Rev. George Fountain of Washington, Warren County, and Rev. Parris C. Greenly of Harrison, who filled out the unexpired term of the late Rev. Dr. William Eakin. Of the thirty-seven pastors preceding Mr. Quimby, nineteen served one year, eleven two years, four three years, and three five years.

From a scattering handful of parishoners in 1847 the church has prospered year after year both in membership and finances, the congregation numbering more than 500 today, with an outstanding debt of only $1,500, which, it is expected, will be cleared off before the advent of the new year, pledges for this purpose approximating $900 having been received. The Sunday School has an average weekly attendance of 350.

IRVINGTON CHURCH BEGINS 70TH ANNIVERSARY PROGRAM

Large congregations featured the services yesterday in Irvington Methodist Episcopal Church, marking the opening of the week's celebration planned in observance of its seventieth anniversary. Rev. Dr. J. William Ryder of First Methodist Episcopal Church, Rahway, who was pastor in Irvington from 1900 to 1904, occupied the pulpit last evening and was greeted by many of his former parishoners in East Orange, Orange, Arlington and Irvington. At the morning service conducted by the pastor, Rev. Karl K. Quimby, five members were received following the celebration of holy communion.

The special program arranged by the anniversary committee will be continued tomorrow night, when Rev. Dr. Millard L. Robinson of New York will preach at a Church service. A social hour will follow with special music by the choir. Refreshments will also be served.

REV. DR. F. W. SMITH TO TALK TONIGHT IN IRVINGTON CHURCH

Rev. Dr. Frank W. Smith of New York, a member of the Sunday School Board of the Methodist Church, will be the speaker tonight at the seventieth anniversary services in Irvington Methodist Episcopal Church. A musical program will be given by the choir under the direction of Edward C. Murphy, and a social hour will follow. No services will be held tomorrow night.

The celebration program for the week will be concluded Sunday, with sermons by Bishop Luther B. Wilson in the morning and Rev. Dr. George G. Vogel, superintendent of the Newark District, in the evening.

Rev. Dr. Dorr F. Diefendorf, pastor of Roseville Methodist Episcopal Church, occupied the pulpit last night, when "Home Night" was observed. The speaker took as his topic, "Home Influence of the Church," dwelling principally on three points, "Make the Church a Home for the Community," "Make the Church a Home for the Young People," and "Keep the Home Fires Burning."

In the course of his talk, Dr. Diefendorf referred to the service flag containing thirty-two stars, which occupies a prominent place in the Irvington Church and paid tribute to the young men who had left their homes to answer the call to the colors.

A fellowship and reunion hour followed.

IRVINGTON CHURCH TO END 70TH ANNIVERSARY PROGRAM

A change in the program for tomorrow, when the celebration of the seventieth anniversary of Irvington Methodist Episcopal Church, which has been in progress since last Sunday, will close, was announced today by the pastor, Rev. Karl K. Quimby. Bishop Luther B. Wilson of New York will be unable to preach at the service owing to another engagement. In his stead Rev. Dr. Edmund D. Silver of the faculty at Drew Seminary, Madison, will occupy the pulpit. Rev. Dr. George G. Vogel, superintendent of the Newark District, will preach in the evening. Special music will be rendered at both services by the choir under the leadership of Edward C. Murphy. Soprano solos will be sung by Miss Marian Tice of Westfield.

"Young People's Night" was observed last evening when Rev. Dr. Frank W. Smith of New York, a member of the Sunday School Board of the Methodist Episcopal Church, spoke before a congregation which filled the edifice to overflowing, many of whom were young men. Dr. Smith paid a tribute to the thirty-four young men from the church who responded to the call to the colors. The speaker said they were fighting to make the world safe for democracy, and went on to say the men at home had an equally important work to do fighting to make democracy safe for the world.

A social hour and refreshments followed. The service was featured by a special musical program by the choir.

BISHOP VINCENT, PASTOR IN IRVINGTON SIXTY-TWO YEARS AGO, WRITES LETTER TO CHURCH ON EDUCATION

Newark News, Wednesday, Nov. 7, 1917

Greetings from former pastors, including Bishop John H. Vincent of Chicago, who occupied the pulpit in 1855 and 1856, will feature the seventieth anniversary services in Irvington Methodist Episcopal Church tonight. Unable to attend the "Former Pastors' Night" celebration, Bishop Vincent has sent a letter to the present pastor, Rev. Karl K. Quimby, which will be read to the congregation along with others from clerics who at one time filled the pastorate.

Rev. Dr. Henry A. Buttz, president emeritus of Drew Seminary, Madison, one of the oldest living pastors of the Irvington Church, will be the preacher this evening. Fraternal greetings will be extended by Rev. George Moore, Jr., pastor of the Second Reformed Church, that town. A special musical program will be given by the choir and refreshments will be served at the social hour which follows.

Referring to his pastorate in Irvington, Bishop Vincent wrote. "I was a boy then, and I suppose the cemetery now contains the remains of nearly if not literally all I knew and served at that time," and goes on to say: "I still have the old record book of my Palestine class that for two years met every Saturday afternoon."

"When I was a lad I had learned 'singing geography,'" says the Bishop, "and I adapted the system to Bible history and geography and composed chants, by which frequent repetitions aided the memory. I had taught day school in Pennsylvania and was fond of youngsters and believed in oldsters and so I had every Saturday afternoon a Palestine class." Two of the members still survive.

"I firmly believe in the educational side of the pastorate," he wrote, "and I expect to see the time, when in every church there will be held classes in secular study to aid day school teachers and parents and to give special emphasis to the ethical and spiritual bearing of all secular studies. You will yet see church class work in all lines of secular study, with lectures, drills, aids and the spiritual application so seldom recognized in our day. There is more in this idea than you may imagine and the time is coming when adults will aim at an education they now fancy impossible, because they are no longer young.

"A man is never too old to begin to be a student, and as women never grow old they will set an example of adult education to husbands, fathers and grandfathers."

At the service last night Rev. Dr. Millard L. Robinson of New York, preached on "The Forward Look of the Church," and fraternal greetings were extended by Rev. Herbert W. Hopkins, rector of Trinity Episcopal Church, Irvington.

HISTORICAL MONOGRAPH

Mr. Joseph Walker

Rev. J. W. Dally was in charge when I first came to this Church in November, 1879, and remained until the Spring of 1882. During his last year three members of the congregation, the late Bro. C. W. Harrison, M. S. Drake and the writer met in the study at the Parsonage to talk over the interests of the Church, particularly the mortgage on the parsonage of $2,500.00 that had for many years been a burden.

The time did not appear to be ripe for the undertaking but the three agreed that when the movement was started they would give $100.00 each.

In 1882 Rev. J. F. Andrew came with his bride and remained three years. During his pastorate he was instrumental in securing from the late Mrs. Godfrey Schutt $500.00 to be paid on the mortgage, leaving a balance of $2,000 to continue to burden us. At the beginning of the third year Bro. Andrew called on the writer in New York and the advisability of making an effort to cancel the mortgage was talked over. At first the prospect was not very encouraging, but when it was mentioned that $300.00 was available the effort was made on the following Sunday and was so well received that during the year we were enabled to pay off $1,000.00, just half of the debt, which was gratifying to both the Pastor and the people.

Following Bro. Andrew, Rev. J. W. Young came to us in 1885 and remained for three years, when Bro. S. K. Doolittle was sent to us in 1888 remaining for five years and winning the love of the entire membership through his untiring work for all departments of the Church, and we still love him for the devotion he has shown during the later years since he took up his permanent residence in our midst.

It was during this five years pastorate that the Ladies' Aid Society under the leadership of its President, Mrs. M. S. Drake, undertook, and succeeded in the undertaking, to clear off the old mortgage, and the writer had the pleasure of applying a match to the cancelled mortgage and burning it, which was a great relief to all interested in the work of the Church. It was during this pastorate that our friend and brother, Rev. C. S. Coit retired from active work and took up his residence in our midst with his wife and daughter.

In 1891, also during Bro. Doolittle's pastorate, our official family was broken by the death of our esteemed friend and brother, George S. Francisco, and in 1892 we lost from our midst Mrs. Coit.

In 1893 Bro. Doolittle was succeeded by Rev. Elbert Clement who remained for two years and it was during this pastorate that we lost Mrs. Josiah Curtis who had for many years been a faithful member.

Rev. E. N. Crasto came to us in 1895 and remained one year. During this year we lost our Bro. Gerard who was a faithful local preacher for many years.

In 1896 Rev. E. S. Jamison came to us and remained for two years. Soon after his arrival our official family was again suddenly broken by the death of Bro. Charles Walker who was one of our Stewards and a member of our choir during his entire membership of the Church. It was during this pastorate that one of our members, Bro. Henry L. Harrison, went as a missionary to South America, and in 1896, returning on a furlough, died on the Isthmus of Panama.

It was also in 1896 that another official member was taken from us, Bro. Michael England, who was converted in this Church during the pastorate of Rev. John Scarlett and continued faithful to the end.

Also in October, 1896, we lost our Brother Josiah Carter.

In 1898 Rev. Morris T. Gibbs came to us remaining two years. It was during this term that a movement to build a new Church was begun. Subscriptions were taken and when a sufficient amount was pledged we employed an architect to draw plans and specifications, but the work of building was not started until the arrival on the ground of Rev. J. W. Ryder in 1900. It was during Bro. Gibbs' pastorate that we lost two of our members. Rev. C. S. Coit left us suddenly in 1898, casting a gloom over the whole Church and town,

Mrs. Cooper passed away in March, 1899.

Ground was broken and the corner stone laid by Rev. M. T. Gibbs in the fall of 1900.

The Sunday School raised $1,000 and all the Societies, Ladies' Aid, King's Daughters, and all others did noble work when we started to build.

The Pastor of the Reformed Church, Rev. Wyckoff, and the entire Church gave us a cordial invitation to unite with them while we were without a home and arranged hours so that we could carry on our Sunday School sessions without a break, and we were very grateful for the uniform kindness shown to us at this time.

A great sorrow came to both Churches in the spring of 1891 when Bro. Wyckoff was suddenly called to the better Country. Bro. Ryder at once offered his services to our sister Church as long as they might be greatly needed, which offer was accepted and greatly appreciated.

In October, 1901, we had the pleasure of returning to our completed building. It was somewhat like an individual, visiting in a distant city or country, who on returning, feels that with all the kindness received there is no place like home. We were royally treated by our hosts but were glad to be at home again. Our new building was dedicated in October, 1901, and the following week we were again face to face with death, for our friend and brother, C. O. Brown was taken from us. The Church was filled at the funeral and those of us who had worked with him for so many years missed him greatly and we miss him still. It was during Bro. Ryder's pastorate that the oldest member, Bro. C. W. Harrison, was suddenly called to a better land. Bro. Harrison had been for upward of 50 years a member of the Church and most of the time on the Official Board, and was for many years President of the Board of Trustees and also Treasurer of the Church.

In 1905 Rev. G. W. Gardner came to us remaining two years, in which time in 1906, we lost from our membership, by death, Mrs. Griffith who had been with us for a number of years.

In 1907 Rev. J. H. Egbert, D. D., came to us and remained three years. During this pastorate we lost another member of our Official Board, Bro. J. B. Hopper and two of our members, Mrs. Chandler and Mrs. Conkey. Those of us who knew Mrs. Conkey will never forget her kindly spirit, nor will we forget her daughter, Mrs. Chalmers, who for so many years was our faithful and untiring infant class teacher and who is now living with her son in Washington, D. C.

In 1910 Rev. G. W. Fountain was sent to our Church. During this pastorate a large number were taken into the Church. In 1914 we lost one who was always in her place at the Church services if she could possibly get there in spite of her 85 years and more, Mrs. Charles Walker.

In 1915 Rev. Wm. Eakins was appointed to the Church but on account of ill health was not able to occupy the pulpit many Sundays, and was the first one to be called from this pastorate of the Church to that brighter sphere. Rev. C. P. Greenly was appointed to fill out the year, when in 1916, Rev. Karl K. Quimby was sent to us and is still our Pastor.

This paper would not be complete without mentioning the fact that we placed a mortgage of $5,000 when building and that the King's Daughters and the other Societies were untiring in their efforts to cancel this debt. When it was reduced to about $2,000 our greatly esteemed friend, Bro. Berry, who for over 40 years was a faithful member and official, but who through failing health moved to Washington, D. C., wrote that if the mortgage could be cleared he would give $1,000. Bro. W. F. Headley at once set to work and in 1916 we had the pleasure of seeing this debt canceled. Now we are trying and expect before this week closes, to see the last dollar of indebtedness raised, and then my prayer is that God will visit us with an outpouring of His Spirit that the walls of Heaven will ring with a New Born Melody, because sinners are being brought to the Light of the Son of God.

Dear Friends:

Our Church has a past as unusual as it is conspicuous. For seventy years the fullness of the Gospel of our common Lord has been effectively proclaimed. A number of the noble sons of Methodism have here proven their ministry: Dr. James M. Freeman was pastor here in 1851, Bishop James H. Vincent in 1855-6, Dr. John F. Hurst in 1858, and Dr. Henry A. Buttz in 1859—now the St. John of the Church, whom we welcome to these exercises as the spiritual father of ministers.

Our present is no less full of promise. Our Church membership has passed the five hundred mark, our Sunday School is growing in effective work and members. All the Church organizations, working together in beautiful harmony, are accomplishing the ends for which they were established. Our embarrassment is that incident to success. The mold has been found inadequate; our work is fast running ahead of our equipment. During last year we made the final payment on the $3,500 mortgage. Still we urgently seek $1,300 to liquidate long standing notes; we ought to have $700 additional to care for the immediate need, to say nothing of the thousands required to give Methodism her rightful place in the life and influence of this promising community. Toward this goal we have promises, conditional and otherwise, of about $900.

Mention is gratefully made of the Historical sketch, begun by Rev. Joseph W. Dally, and brought to date by Mr. Joseph Walker, who has been actively connected with the Church in official capacity for some thirty-seven years. As an integral part of the Seventieth Anniversary, through the thoughtfulness of the Ladies' Aid Society the Parsonage has been repaired and painted. Also, the Church has been painted, thanks to Mr. Walker and Mr. W. F. Headley.

There is faith that the abundant blessings of God will lead this Church into a future entirely worthy of the past.

KARL K. QUIMBY, Pastor.

POEM OF FORMER PASTORS

I've been asked to write a poem about the pastors dear,
Who've labored in this Church of ours through many and many a year;
'Tis quite a task to write the truth of those you do not know,
For some of them came to this place, seventy years ago.

Not all of us were in this place so many years ago
To hear these former pastors, but no doubt they preached just so;
So we'll take the names of each in turn and tell you all we can,
And we'll tell you most the good things you'd expect from a good man.

Fourteen preachers living still, some large and some quite small,
And with all their little failings, we had a love for all.
And many times we've felt so bad to have them sent away,
And wished that only Methodists could be sent to us to stay.

Bishop Vincent was the first to come, though he wasn't Bishop then,
And he's preached in many places in his three score years and ten.
Many souls he's led to Christ and offered many a prayer
And when the roll is called up yonder, he can answer "I'll be there."

Then Dr. Buttz comes next in turn; to many here 'tis known
How many sermons he has preached and the good seed he has sown.
And when his work is over, and he feels he's growing old
He's sure after all life's trials, he'll come forth as shining gold.

The next came Brother Collins who came in early life,
The only one in all the lot, who came to get a wife.
And he just preached for one short year,
Then took the wife and went from here.

He's living still and loved by all, at home and o'er the street,
He's always had a pleasant word where'er perchance you'd meet.
It might be in a business house or in some other place,
Was always calm and Christlike with a smile upon his face.

Mr. Keifer was another one who stayed here for one year,
And having never seen him, shall have to say right here,
Because he was a Pastor, his name must come in rhyme,
But the story of his ministry, be told some other time.

The Rev. Mr. Dally stayed for all of three short years,
And many happy days we had and more perhaps filled with tears.
But he knew how to comfort the ones whose hearts were sad
And always was as happy with the ones whose hearts were glad.

We spent many pleasant hours at his home with his dear wife,
 So we'll keep a pleasant memory of these through all of life.
 And we'll turn our thoughts to the next who came,
 To some he's unknown so we'll tell you his name.

The Rev. J. F. Andrew came and brought a brand new wife,
 And we never shall forget them, no, not in all of life;
 But she was not the only bride for long as you will see,
 For it was not many months before he made a bride of me.

His wife was large but such a dear,
 And loved by all who met her here
 And now he wished they could only stay
 But alas: The Bishop had his way.

Then came Mr. Jamison, his term was short to be,
 For when a pastor stays two years we're sure you'll all agree
 You can hardly get to know him in such a little time,
 But our Bishops will do some things which we cannot put in rhyme.

Mr. Gibbs was next, and when he came to town
 Our Church was getting old, and pretty well run down.
 He talked new Church while he was here,
 The way to build one at this time, did not seem very clear.

Next Mr. Ryder stayed five years, and so he did not fear
 To talk new Church, and 'twas not long before the Church was here.
 But when he left as you all know, it was not paid for yet,
 And tho we've tried to pay for it, still have a little debt.

Mr. Gardner followed and a Pastor fine was he.
 He taught a class of young men and I'm sure they would agree
 To stay still longer had he stayed, but you know the tale of woe,
 The Pastor went, and these young men thought they would also go.

And now for Mr. Egbert, dear to all was he.
 As fatherly and gentle as any man could be.
 He called upon the aged, the sick and shut-in's too,
 But when it came to strangers, sometimes he'd call on you.

We knew he always did his best as all the good men do,
 He never could be doubted for we always found him true.
 We trust his life from now, will be one free from toil and care,
 With God's own love down in his heart with which none can compare,

Mr. Fountain, here five years, of him what shall we say.
 The Church had never been so full as when he came to stay.
 And full he kept it just five years
 He toiled through sunshine, clouds and tears.

He could talk on anything he was ever asked to do,
 And had a knack of cheering folks who would sometimes get blue.
 His hymns, his sermons, and his prayers just seemed to touch the spot,
 And the people thronged to hear him weather cold or weather hot.

He worked while here for temperance, a task quite hard you know
 When few men try to help you, there's very little show.
 But he toiled on through thick and thin and dared to stand alone
 And we never shall forget him till we meet at God's own throne.

The Rev. Parris Greenley, a funny name thought we
 And still a funnier thing you see, a single man was he.
 And though he was our pastor, he could always crack a joke
 He could be sad, he could be gay and smiles or tears provoke.

He stayed six months and did fine work,
 And ne'er a duty did he shirk.
 He held revival for six weeks straight ahead
 And many at these meetings we're sure to Christ were led.

There are many other pastors who've preached in this dear place,
 But God thought best to call them, to meet Him face to face.
 We cannot close the poem for it would not be complete
 If we did not give one sweet thought until again we meet.

The next, our present pastor, came here when most a boy,
 And he was single too, but his heart was filled with joy;
 For over in East Orange was a maiden fair you know,
 And sometimes through the week we think he over there did go.

And so in last October the secret all came out.
 There was to be a wedding somewhere there about.
 And some here had the pleasure to see these two made one,
 And know full well that now, his work had really just begun.

His every word is uplift in the Church and on the street,
 He carries sunshine in his face whenever him you meet.
 The text that he first preached to us was this, just "Shine inside."
 He found it on a boot-black's door, he did to us confide.

His sermons have been good through all of this past year,
 And we trust he'll ne'er regret the Bishop sent him here.
 We're sure he meets all kinds of folks, some fine and some quite queer,
 But, no doubt, he'll find it just the same when he is not quite so near.

We trust the years he may be here will bright and happy be,
 And that the good seed he may sow will reach o'er land and sea.
 And when to Conference we shall go and hear our Pastor's name,
 We hope to hear the Bishop say, "Go back from whence you came."

MRS. ANNA A. WATERFIELD.

METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH

Rev. Charles S. Kemble, Pastor

Sunday, Children's Day, baptism of infants and graduation of various departments of Sunday School at the morning service, 10:30 A.M.; Sunday school at 2:30 P.M.; no Epworth League meeting, Children's Day exercises by the school at 7:30 P.M. The Church will be beautifully decorated with flowers; Tuesday night, fellowship meeting; special official board meeting Thursday night.

Sunday, June 19, the Sunday School will begin on its summer schedule, meeting at 9:45 A.M. until the second Sunday in September. The new Brotherhood Forum will hold its first session to discuss public questions from the standpoint of Christianity at 10 A.M.; morning preaching service will be at 10:45 instead of 10:30.

This Saturday is field day for the Epworth Leagues of this vicinity. Athletic stunts in competition for the athletic banner in the afternoon and a rally in the evening at the Methodist Church. The local league has held the athletic banner since last June.

Last Tuesday night the first quarterly Conference of the year was held by Rev. Dr. Baldwin, district superintendent. Reports showed the Church to be in a most healthy condition. There have been twenty-four accessions during the three months covered by the report and 112 for the fourteen months of the present pastorate. Five of these, received last Sunday, were Mrs. Mary Keller, of 1091 Springfield avenue, the Misses Ida and Etta Mitchell, 32 Headly Terrace, Howard Chandler, 375 Nye avenue, and Corwin Steele, 602 Nye avenue.

The Brotherhood had a very interesting meeting Friday evening. Mr. Chas. Stube of the High School faculty telling of some of his experiences in India and exhibiting a number of curios.

The young women's circle of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society met the same evening, and listened to the address by Prof. Stube. It was their Mite Box opening, about $42 being received from this source toward a scholarship in India. Refreshments were served and a very pleasant time enjoyed at both meetings. The Brotherhood reported a large number of shrubs planted around the Nye avenue side of the Church, the expense being borne and the planting done by the Brotherhood. Steps were taken for the organization of a Forum Bible Class under the direction of the spiritual department.

METHODIST BOARD ADOPTS RESOLUTION ON WORK OF REV. C. S. KEMBLE

The official board of the Methodist Episcopal Church this week adopted the following resolution:

"Whereas, The Reverend Charles S. Kemble has just completed three very successful years of work as pastor of this church; therefore, be it

"Resolved, That the official board of the Irvington Methodist Episcopal Church hereby expresses its heartiest approval of the work of the Reverend Charles S. Kemble in and for this Church and community, commending him especially for the following:

"1. The preaching of sermons which are truthful expositions of the teachings of Christ, applied to the conditions of life existing in this community today; sermons aglow with spirituality, very helpful and inspiring to those hearing them.

"2. The practising constantly in his relations with us of the spirit of Christian forbearance and sympathy that can be the fruit only of a life lived in accordance with the spirit of the Master Himself.

"3. His untiring work among the people of this parish, a work which has resulted during his pastorate in the addition of almost two hundred members to the roll of the church. These new members are worthy and desirable, very many of them to-day filling with credit the offices in this Church and its various organizations. Altogether, a record neither equalled nor surpassed for many years past in the Irvington M. E. Church.

"4. The excellent shape in which he leaves the different Church organizations—active, alive, working.

"5. His interest in the welfare of the town in general as shown, for instance, in the active part he has taken in the organizing and promoting of the Irvington Community School of Religious Education. He has been a valuable member of the Executive Committee of this school and in addition has taught a class every term excepting one during the past three years; his classes have always been among the most largely attended and enthusiastic in the school."

The resolution was signed for the board by George F. Bailets, Edward C. Murphy and William P. Uhler, Jr.

Ministers Commend Kemble and Strube as They Resign

Glowing tributes were paid Rev. Charles S. Kemble, who has resigned his pastorate of the Methodist Episcopal Church, at the monthly luncheon of the Ministerial Association Tuesday.

The president, Dr. William H. Hainer, presided, and each of the town clergy made addresses which were in the nature of farewells to Mr. Kemble and Rev. Charles F. Strube, who has resigned as a teacher of the Irvington High School. Both men were highly praised for their work in the Community School of Religious Education, which has been conducted with great success.

Mr. Kemble's Final Act Is to Wed 3 Couples in 15 Hours

Within fifteen hours, Rev. Charles S. Kemble, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church, performed three wedding ceremonies, beginning with a service at Tuxedo Park at 7 o'clock Saturday night.

At 8 o'clock he married at the bride's home, 32 Smith street, Miss LaVerna Hollingsworth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Smith A. Hollingsworth, to Robert Meldrum, of 498 Nye avenue. The relatives of both parties were present and a wedding supper was served. Easter morning at 10 o'clock, at the parsonage, the pastor tied the nuptial knot for Charles O. Smith of Stuyvesant avenue, Union, and Miss Mae C. Reilly of Newark.

The Choir

Dear Friends:

When I read more detailed history of Methodism in Irvington, I am moved by the rustic splendour of the early days and the vision radiant of her people today. Many a storm swept over this church as it did over the great movement of Methodism but Light defies the mists and the church still stands.

Our church historian has not failed to mention such names as Miss Taylor, Mr. Bailey, Mr. Brown and Mr. Rathbone as strong and saintly counsellors in its early history. When the history of the latter years is written not a few such members as our revered Mr. Walker will be remembered. He is typical of their fine spirit today.

Some of the greatest men in American Methodism served this church as pastors. Freeman and Gill were authors, Gilbert was no mean poet, Vincent, the Chautauqua genius, author and editor, was a bishop, as was Hurst. Dr. Buttz as President of Drew Seminary for many years was a "presence that disturbed with the joy of elevated thought." Dally, Collins, Andrews and Doolittle were great organizers and greatly loved. Names of other pastors will be recorded for their contribution to the services of the church by a later historian.

This brief word of the past should inspire us with a determined will and a noble purpose. From a small provincial parish we have risen to a church of 653 members. No more hopeful days ever faced the church. The old order passes and the new day is at hand. How wonderfully well the church has taken hold of this Campaign! What a high tide of splendid cooperation is moving us onward to real accomplishment! We have set ourselves to a daring task and we will continue until we have erected the new Temple of God as a living testimony to Christ and the needs of men. We are now in the canvass of our Building Campaign for $35,000. As this program goes to press we have over $32,000. We desire a victory Sunday on November 20 with the full amount raised.

Remember, my people, what we do now those living at the century anniversary are bound to recall. What will we pass on to them? May God spare us all at least to see the consummation of our worthy effort.

May this be a glorious week for you, rich in experience and beautiful in memory.

Faithfully,

ROLAND L. LUERICH.

HISTORICAL RECORD

C. S. Gillespie was appointed April, 1923, and served to April, 1927.

During this pastorate the new site for the Church was secured on Nye Avenue and Union Avenue at a cost of $35,000. The financial strength increased from 300 paying members to 450 who subscribed to the budget in 1926. The pastor's salary was $2,500.00 in 1923, in 1927 it is $3,500.00. For the three years 1924, 1925, and 1926, all bills were paid at conference time and a balance was in the treasury.

In 1923, the Everyman's Bible Class was organized and for four years now it has been doing good work. The first president was Dr. E. J. H. Schneider, 1923 and 1924. In 1925 Judge Frederick Stoddard, in 1926 Mr. Joseph Prochaska.

In 1925 week day religious instruction was started in connection with the public schools. The Pastor of the Methodist Church was president of the Irvington Council of Religious Education and in 1927 was succeeded by Judge Frederic Stoddard. In 1927 Gillespie is appointed to Washington and Roland L. Luerich comes to Irvington. May God bless him and this work go forward.

BRIEF OF NEW CHURCH

For more than ten years a new church has been strongly advocated. It is needed. Former pastors urged and labored faithfully for this forward step. During the present pastorate one campaign for land and one for building were inaugurated netting in pledges $86,000. Plans for the church have been drawn but the time for and extent of building operations is yet to be determined. Economic conditions in the country have delayed an advance movement.

At present the church owns the two corners of Union and Nye Avenues, known as the Day property and the site upon which the present church stands; the parsonage at 64 Myrtle Avenue, and the property facing Stratford Place, known as the Bower-Waterfield site. This is the approved new location. With favorable real estate conditions, the sale of the two corners at Union and Nye Avenues should be accomplished and equity sufficient to build.

The estimated value of the properties held by the church totals $157,000. The present indebtedness is $53,000.

As this history goes to press it is my prayer that the future of the church may be blessed with even greater vision, courage, and patience.

Signed, ROLAND L. LUERICH, Pastor.

March 23, 1931.

Now in conclusion of this Historical Record of the Irvington Methodist Episcopal Church, and as it is about to go to press, we are most happy to learn that at the close today in St. Luke's Church of the seventy-fourth session of the Newark Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, our beloved pastor, Rev. Roland Louis Luerich, has been returned to us for another year.

May it be the most successful year Mr. Luerich has yet experienced in the work of his ministry. We most heartily welcome him back to our midst.

SARA WILSON ALLEN, Compiler.

My life is but a weaving
 Between my Lord and me,
 I cannot choose the colors
 He worketh steadily.
 Oft times He weaveth sorrow
 And I in foolish pride
 Forget He sees the upper
 And I, the underside.
 Not till the loom is silent
 And the shuttles cease to fly
 Shall God unroll the canvas
 And explain the reason why
 The dark threads are as needful
 In the Weaver's skilful hand
 As the threads of gold and silver
 In the pattern He has planned.

He knows, He loves, He cares,
 Nothing this truth can dim,
 He gives His very best to those
 Who leave the choice with Him.
